

The Third* Worldwide Gathering of Cuf(f)leys

And Cuf(f)ley Descendants, relatives and friends

16th & 17th October 1999

At the Historic town of Beechworth,
Victoria, Australia

Beechworth was important in the Cuf(f)ley story in the 19th Century as the centre of a great goldrush.

*The first Gathering was in Cuffley, Hertfordshire in 1993 and the second Gathering in Baltimore, Maryland, USA 1996

Activities will include a grand dinner on the Saturday evening (16th), a barbeque lunch on Sunday and plenty of opportunities to meet in convivial circumstances. Latrobe University Campus has been chosen as the venue for both the dinner and accommodation. It has a wide variety of tariffs ranging from 4½ star to hostel style and is in a beautiful garden setting. There is an option of booking in on Friday 15th, otherwise registration will be from 10 am to 2 pm on Saturday 16th. For those with time available, there will be an expedition to Omeo on Monday 18th October to visit the grave of goldminer Richard Cufley and the only known 'Cufley' street in the world.
